Dear Parents and Carers,

I can't quite believe that the half term holidays are almost upon us. It comes as a much needed break for our children, particularly our Year 2 and Year 6 pupils who have completed their end of key stage SATs. We were all really proud of how they all approached the challenge with determination and a 'can do' attitude. Well done everyone!

But we still have a lot to fit in before Thursday...

On Wednesday 22nd May, Janettie Wucherpfennig will be visiting to share her experience living with Ehlers-Danlos Syndrome and to challenge us all to 'Dare to be Rare'. Children and adults are invited to wear black and white for a £1 donation to EDS support UK.

The following day, Thursday 23rd May, we are celebrating Elmer's 30th Birthday. Continuing the theme, daring to be rare, we will explore the story of the patchwork elephant who embraced his distinctive appearance. In contrast to the previous day, children are invited to show their unique side by wearing bright colours – just like the famous elephant. Please do not buy anything special for this and no donation is necessary.

Look out on Twitter and the school website for pictures of the events.
