Parents Musical Theatre / Singing Group

If the “Military Wives Choir” can do it...if your children can do it...if you have always yearned to do it...if you fancy one evening a week away from the kitchen sink, homework, paperwork...if you sing in the bath, in your car, at your children...if you need to release your inner Whitney Houston, Elaine Paige, Freddie Mercury, Elton John, Miss Trunchbull or Danny Zuko.....YOU CAN DO IT!

Calling all Mums and Dads - I teach Piano, Singing and Musical Theatre privately, in schools and at Sarratt School. If there is enough interest I will be starting up a new weekly singing group one evening during the week. All welcome – all abilities – singing a range of songs from your favourite musicals, rock and pop. So you know who you are.....don't be shy.....give it a go and in the first instance contact me to register your interest – Mrs J A Sandison, justinegriffiths@hotmail.co.uk / Tel. 07710 773222.
